

Built In Silence Privacy Policy

Last Updated: June 2026

Built In Silence ("we", "our", or "the service") is an automated content creation and publishing tool used to generate and publish motivational content to social media platforms.

Information We Collect

Built In Silence may store:

- Authentication tokens required to connect social media accounts.
- Account identifiers provided by connected platforms.
- Content metadata such as captions, hashtags, titles, and publishing history.
- Technical logs required for debugging and operation.

How We Use Information

Information is used solely for:

- Publishing content to connected social media accounts.
- Managing scheduled content.
- Maintaining publishing logs and analytics.
- Improving service reliability and functionality.

Data Sharing

Built In Silence does not sell personal information to third parties.

Information may be transmitted to social media platforms when authorized by the account owner for the purpose of publishing content.

Data Security

Reasonable measures are taken to protect stored authentication credentials and account information.

Data Retention

Information is retained only as long as necessary to operate the service and maintain publishing records.
